CUSTOM HOME COLLECTION

This home was designed for all of the cooks who like to be where the action is but still keep designated work space for just themselves. Lots of countertop space and a pantry make this ideal for the multi-chef family.

You will also notice the convenient "flexible space" bedroom at the front of the house. Do you see a formal dining room there? Or perhaps double French doors at the front entry leading into a home office? Choose your option and make this space your own---quickly, before someone else calls dibs on the room!

You won't be disappointed in the master suite. Off at the end of the house for added privacy, this suite features double sinks as well as a separate shower and whirlpool tub. We've even tucked the toilet into its own little corner and snuck in a linen closet. Is there anything else on your list we've forgotten?

Just let us know, it is important to us that you are...Home at Last.
