We don't know who came up with the first single level home with split bedrooms, but we just bet they had teenagers. What a great idea. Or in-laws, or just wanted to get away by themselves once in a while. It was worth repeating.

This plan has the open great room to the kitchen, but of course, you could partition that room off for added privacy in the kitchen-nook area. Oh, did you notice the reading area off the kitchen? Or it could be a breakfast for two spot? Here's an idea, bump out the breakfast nook and turn it into a dining room, and then you can make the dining room into that home office you've always wanted. See how simple it is.

And when all is said and done, pour yourself a glass of wine, light some candles and enjoy a soothing soak in the privacy of your whirlpool in your master bath, now you can feel...Home at Last.
